Concert Tuesday night.

OBSERVING THE SABBATH.

Usual Services Will Be Held in the Churches.

There will be the usual services today at all the churches. Rev. Dr. James, of Allegheny Institute, will preach at the Baptist Church morning and night. At the Presbyterian Church Rev. Dr. Alexander Pitzer, of Washington, D. C., will conduct the services in the morning, and at night J. R. Bridges will deliver a sermon to the College Y. M. C. A. In the morning Rev. Collins Denny, of Vanderbilt University, will occupy the pulpit of the Methodist Church, which at night Rev. J. S. Hutchinson will also fill. John H. Palmer will lead the Y. M. C. A. meeting this afternoon. Subject: "Following Christ."

BREVITIES.

Saturday morning soon after 10 o'clock some excitement was caused on Duck alley by the alarm of fire from H. J. Sennage's barroom. It appears that the proprietor, in endeavoring to thaw out a frozen pipe, ignited some cobwebs and trash under the counter. The fire was speedily extinguished, with but slight loss.

W. Rush Burdette, of Memphis, is visiting relatives here.

Jackson Beale has returned from a business trip North.

A marriage license was issued yesterday in the county clerk's office to Owen Henry Boon and Nannie Boon, both of Roanoke county.

R. E. Hickok, druggist, of Christiansburg, well-known in Salem, stopped over here yesterday on his return from Richmond, where he has just passed a successful examination before the State board of pharmacy, being one of twenty-two out of a class of forty-four, who received a diploma.

Edward Wade, brother of Depot Agent Wade, died yesterday morning at Christiansburg from the effects of injuries received in falling down a mining shaft near there on Thursday. He will be buried to-day.

B. F. Barnett, the Catawba Adonis, is in Salem for a day or two.

D. D. Barrier, of Mt. Pleasant, N. C., was in town yesterday.

Sergeant Prier succeeded yesterday in collecting from the Salem Improvement Company those taxes which they do not dispute, receiving in cash $2,463.91 and giving them credit on pavement account for $1,316.40. The taxes in dispute amount to $1,575, and whether they will be paid or not will be decided by the court of appeals.

Miss Louise F. Cobbs, one of the teachers in the public school, has resigned on account of ill health.

Mayor Younger has donated $25 and Sergeant Prier $20 to assist the Jeff Davis Rifles to pay for their uniforms.

Dr. Bramblitt, of Pulaski, assisted by Drs. Stearnes and Dillard, of Salem, on Friday performed a difficult surgical operation on Maj. R. D. Martin, who last night was reported as still progressing favorably.

G. W. Walker, of Dublin, is visiting his son, J. E. Walker, the Salem agent of THE ROANOKE TIMES.

Next Monday is county court day. Many of the county public schools have closed.

Mrs. W. G. Evans, of Roanoke, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Roberts, returned home yesterday. In the Prier building, Monday, on East Main street, dinner will be served by the lady friends of the Salem Silver Cornet Band, and at night there will be a supper and concert at the same place, the proceeds of which will go towards paying for instruments recently purchased by the band. The Jeff Davis Rifles will assemble at the Hochman block in the evening and, preceded by the band, will march to the supper room, where they will do their part to help out their friends, the band.

Will Harveycuter has taken a contract for excavating on the Peak creek improvement in Pulaski city.

Elpaal.

A full house greeted the young ladies of the Elpaal Society on Friday night in the lecture room of the First Baptist Church. The program announced seven tableaux representing Jean Ingelow's "Songs of Seven." The scenic arrangement was artistic and beautiful, while the pathetic rendering of the poem by an unseen reader gave one a clear understanding of each tableau and served to impress the lessons of the poem. The instrumental and vocal music that followed the tableaux, together with the recitations of varied literature, the audience were treated to a rare entertainment, and the responsive applause was hearty and frequent. Where all did so well, it would be unfair to discriminate. The Elpaals deserve great credit and may be sure that their entertainments will be largely patronized.

Concert Tuesday night.

Carried to the Supreme Court.

The case of the Norwich Lock Company vs. J. R. Hookaday, to enforce the payment of subscription to the capital stock of the company, and recently decided in the Hastings Court in favor of the defendant, will be carried to the supreme court of appeals of Virginia by the plaintiff. Griffin & Glasgow are attorneys for the company and Soot & Staples represent Mr. Hookaday. This case has aroused more interest, perhaps, than any that has been tried in the Hastings Court for a long time, and the decision of the court of last resort will be looked for with a degree of anxiety and interest.

If you want a buss or baggage wagon ring up telephone 219.

Contract Not Yet Awarded.

The building committee of the Sam Jones tabernacle met at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the Y. M. C. A. parlor, all the members being present but one. Seven bids on the construction of the building were read but no definite action was taken, as several contractors had not sent in their bids. The committee may yet decide to build the tabernacle by force account. Another meeting of the committee will be held Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock, when definite action will be taken.

MISS GELLINGER, Machine Works Band Concert, Tuesday night.

"The Second Coming of Christ."

A cordial invitation is extended to all men to come to the hall of the Y. M. C. A. this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock to hear an address by Rev. C. Armand Miller, of Salem, upon the subject of "The Second Coming of Christ." This is a topic which is attracting much attention now from Bible students and is full of interest to all. Mr. Miller will not deliver any sensational theories. He will not attempt to tell the audience when this important event will occur, but will give the Bible view of the matter as it appears to him. Come early.

In Favor of the Railroad.

The court of appeals of Virginia has decided the case of Dr. Bailey against the South Atlantic and Ohio Railroad Company in favor of the defendants. Dr. Bailey has made a protracted and stubborn fight for what he claimed to be his rights.
